the court house, last Saturday, it looked very much like it.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.—Within a short time the Pilot Knob Iron Company will have placed electric light in the tunnel and on the summit of the Knob. A contract for the Brush light has been closed, and we presume there is no doubt but that within a few days, or weeks, at furthest, the workmen will pursue their labors by the aid of the new light.

The Fruit Trees delivered here last Thursday by the Hoover & Gaines Nursery, of Dayton, Ohio, through their General Agent, Mr.
A. J. Shadaker, were put up in excellent shape.
This firm uses lake moss around the roots, which is a sure protection to the trees during handling and shipment. Everybody was well pleased with the trees and particularly so with the way they were packed and delivered.

The school election at Pilot Knob last week resulted as follows:

For directors for three years: P. H. Jaquith, 92; J. P. Hayden, 79; F. Katha, 34; D.
O'Donnell, 32.

For one year: D. O'Donnell, 53; Chas.
Maschmeyer, 35; P. H. Jacquith, 28; J. P.
Hayden, 4.

School for 8 months. 137 votes were polled.

It was amusing to outsiders to witness the perturbation of the Federal office-holders in this town last Saturday. In obedience to the civil service rules, neither the land-office nor the post-office took active part in the proceedings of the convention, and all stayed at home, like good little boys. But if they were not present in the flesh, their spirits were there.
And the spirits were at daggers' points and swords drawn.

At the Lutheran Church, of Pilot Knob, on Sunday, April 14th, 1890, the following young persons received confirmation: John Amelung, Henry Zink, Christine Grandhomme, Adelaine Wolf, Marie Weber, Adelheid Grand-homme, Elizabeth Seiler, Magdalene Wess, Emma Kessler, Emilie Gerstemeier, and Rosetta Deufel. The examination previous to the confirmation was very exhaustive, and occupied some three hours. The ceremonies were witnessed by a very large number of people.

We are in receipt of the "photo" of our far off friend, Maj. P. H. Hambrech. It is a fair representation of his bodily appearance, albeit with his Sunday-go-to-messin clothes on. We shall frame the picture and place it in such position that the genial countenance may act as a soporific on those rare occasions when our angry passions want to rise.

By-the-way, Major, don't accept George's statement in reference to "the boys" until you hear from us. When he shall have conformed to the request contained in your letter, we'll know it, and we will let you know, also.

Our old and respected friend Dr. M. Thomas, of Bellevue, came into our sanctum last Monday, and we had a long and pleasant chat with him. The Dr. has labored for fifty years in his profession, and, although hale and hearty yet, we think he might retire with honor from active duty. When he came to Bellevue, the country was "new," with human habitations few and far between, and he has lived to see the waste places made glad with thriving farms, and towns grown up where forests stood. He is verily a patriarch, and like them of old, stands high in the esteem and reverence of all who know him. May his eighty years lengthen out until the hundred be left far in the past.

Republican Convention.

The Iron County Republican Convention met in the county court room, April 10, at 3 p. m., and organized by electing W. W. Haywood, Chairman, and J. Markham, Sec'y.

J. P. Hayden was elected delegate to the State Convention; and S. T. Gay, alternate.

The Convention was nearly unanimous in the adoption of a resolution offered by Dr. T.
R. Goulding instructing the delegate to vote in the State Convention for such delegates to Chicago as would be favorable to Gen. Grant for President.

The following were elected a County Republican Committee: W. W. Haywood, Chairman; T. R. Goulding, J. H. Whitman, M.
Vickery, Edwin May, A. W. Ness, John A.
Luthey, and Thos. Henderson.

It was voted that a Republican Mass Convention to be held in Ironton on the 23rd Saturday in Sept., to nominate a county ticket, to be supported at the fall election.

It was voted that the proceedings of this meeting be published in county paper.

W. W. HAYWOOD, Ch'.

J. MARKHAM, Sec'y.

Died.—At his residence in St. Louis, Mo., on Thursday night, April 8th, 1890, JOHN A. MIL-LER, aged 71 years, 6 months and 25 days.
Mr. Miller, after residing in Iron county for about eighteen years, removed to St. Louis in 1873. He was a native of Berlin, Prussia, emigrating to the United States in 1837, since which time he was engaged in business in various places. During 1868-73 he was deputy-collector of this county, under Sheriff Buford, and for several years subsequent to that time held the position of Public Administrator.— Since his removal to St. Louis, his health had been rapidly failing, and on Thursday, at 11:30 p. m., he peacefully breathed his last.
His remains were buried in the Wesleyan Cemetery, by St. Louis Lodge, No. 5, I. O. O. F., of which Order he had been an active member for thirty-two years. Peace to his ashes!

Fires in the Woods—Great Damage to Property!

RAILROAD BRIDGES BURNED!

High gales of wind have been prevailing for the past two days, and in consequence the fires in the forests have spread with amazing rapidity, destroying fences and other property. Tuesday night two trestles of the I. M. R.
R. were burned—one located near Hogan, and the other near Williamsville; and Tuesday afternoon a covered bridge near Blackwell was destroyed—the result of forest fires. This was a large bridge, having a span of 150 feet, and cannot be replaced for several days. Considerable loss will result to the railroad company through the stoppage of freight trains, which are now lying up all along the road, waiting for orders. Even the transmission of the mails may be arrested for two or three days.

The Leap Year Party at the American Hotel last Friday evening was one of the largest and most successful we have seen in the Valley for years. All the appointments were excellent, and the programme of the evening was carried out without let or hindrance of any kind.
The guests were well pleased, and appeared to enjoy themselves exceedingly well under the supervision of the young ladies who conducted the affair, and who are entitled to credit for the excellence of the arrangements.
The supper was first rate, and reflected credit upon the kind hostess whose endeavors to make everything pleasantly contribute to the entertainment of the young folks were eminently successful. In addition to those who live in the Valley, we noticed the following from other sections:

Mr. A. D. Stewart, proprietor of the English Kitchen St. Louis, and wife; Mr. Humphreys, Mr. O'Connor, and Mr. Haeffner, St. Louis; Miss Lillie Hall and Miss Maud Peters, Little Rock; Miss Jennie Peters, Mr. Carr, and Mr. Ed. Russell, Annapolis; Mr. Tetley, Farmington; Mr. Babcock and Mr. Gresson, Poplar Bluff; Miss Fannie Gresson, Penn.; Mr. Monroe, and Mr. Courtney, Pilot Knob; Mr. Bert and Miss Langdon, and Miss Hettie Langdon, Cotton Plant.

LANDAU-LOPEZ.—Mr. Louis Landau, junior partner in the firm of A. Landau & Co., St. Louis, was married last Sunday by Rev.
Dr. Spitz, of Bnai El. congregation, to Miss Jennie Lopez, one of Ironton's fairest daughters. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the groom's parents, 1211 Chouteau avenue, at 5:30 o'clock p. m., in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

The bride's costume was of rich white satin, cut square in the neck, with elbow sleeves and full train. It was elegantly trimmed with Valenciennes lace.

Miss Henrietta Lopez, the bride's sister, and Mr. Fred Landau, brother of the groom were the principal attendants, Miss Clara Landau, the groom's sister, and George Lopez, the bride's brother, being the second. The costume of the bride was of Paris muslin trimmed with lace.

From 7:30 until 11 o'clock a reception was held in the parlors of 1211 Chouteau avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Landau received numerous congratulations and presents of silverware and other beautiful articles from their friends, for whom an elegant supper was prepared.

Among those noticed present were Mrs. M.
Eisenstadt, Mr. and Mrs. B. Althelm, Mr. and Mrs. A. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mayberry, Mr. Henry Lyons, Rev. Dr. Epstein and lady, Prof. A. Epstein, Rev. Dr. Spitz and lady, Prof. I. Epstein, Rev. Dr. Messing and lady, Miss Rachael Cohen, Mr. Meyer, Misses Annie and Rose Meyer, Misses Carrie and Rachael Epstein, Mrs. Meyerson, Mr. Max Meyerson, Mr. Werner, Miss Henrietta Werner, Mr. Sam Friede, Mr. Joseph Goepfert, Miss Nellie Muelle, Mr. M. Cook, Mr. J. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. Max Landau, Mr. Tho-Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobus, Mr. and Mrs. Lesser, Mr. M. Myers, Mr. Samuel Gershon, Mr. Albert Cannann, and Miss Fannie Cannann.

To the happy couple we tender our warmest congratulations, and trust their future may be attended with naught but happiness and love.

Pilot Knob Pickings.

A strange and funny accident occurred here last week. As one of the cars were ascending the tramway, the rope wore a roller into two parts and threw one of them on the rail.
A man named Bowman, was riding up in the car at the time. There were several ties in the car which were about 13 feet long. They were a little longer than the car, and one end was in the lower end of the car and the other end was hanging over the upper end of the car.
Well, the man Bowman was standing on the ties leaning against the iron which holds the door of the car in place. The piece of roller was thrown on the rail just in time to make the car jump the track as it was going pretty fast it ran off the track into the woods.
The end of the ties that were hanging over the car, struck on the lower side of a limb on a tree, consequently throwing the other end high in the air, and also threw the man about 20 ft. over the tops of the saplings. He was not hurt but I suppose he was scared a little.
Jno. Schwab, Jr., goes up to the city this week to lay in a new stock of goods.

I believe we are to have a wedding on Main Street before long.

The Engine of No. 14, or Short Train, got off the track last Monday, and was delayed about an hour.

The streets seemed lively last night, as a few men were paid off. They went to the saloon, in town, got enough liquor in them to feel funny, and started toward what they called home, yelling for all that was out.

We have a telegraph station here now, and our agent can talk all over the line if he chooses.

We are to have a hotel here before long.
It will be in the building known as the Pilot Knob Hotel, one door north of Post-Office.

Hope that you will give this room in your paper, I will close; will write you more news next week.

Yours, Respectfully,

Pilot Knob, Mo., April 13, 1890.

A Request and Response.

TWENTY-SIXTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF MO., March, 1890.

HON. JOHN L. THOMAS, Hillsboro, Mo.:

DEAR SIR:—The undersigned, your Democratic fellow citizen of the 26th Judicial Circuit of Missouri, after a long and favorable acquaintance with you as a citizen and lawyer, and from a full knowledge of your integrity and ability, and appreciating the importance of having the Judgeship bestowed upon one of ability and worth; we assume to ask you to become a candidate for the position, subject to the action of the Democratic Judicial convention, if one be held. And in the event of your candidacy, we pledge to you our active and enthusiastic support.

Signed by 75 citizens of Jefferson, Iron and Washington counties.

HILLSBORO, Mo., April 12th, 1890.

To R. W. McMullin, and others, of Jefferson county; John F. T. Edwards and others of Iron county; H. W. Poston, M. D., and others, of Washington county:

Gentlemen:—

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very flattering invitation to become a candidate for the Judgeship in the 26th Judicial Circuit of Missouri, subject to the action of the Democratic Judicial convention of the circuit, if one should be held, and return to you my heartfelt gratitude and thanks for your noble and kind words of confidence.— While I am a native of this circuit, born, raised, educated, and my life's labors performed within its boundaries, and have thus had opportunities to learn and know the wants of the people, and while I have an experience of twenty-five years as a practitioner at the bar, yet I feel that a Judge should possess higher and better qualifications—some of which I fear I do not possess—at least in an eminent degree, and that your recommendation of me for the position named is prompted more by the generous impulses of your hearts than the exercise of judgment.

I certainly am not insensible of the honor of the position you so generously and without solicitation on my part offer to assist me to reach, and while I have many misgivings as to my entire fitness for the bench, yet I do not feel at liberty to disregard so substantial a call as you have made upon me; and if the Democracy of this circuit should ratify your call by nominating me for the office of Judge and that nomination should be ratified next November by the people at the polls, I will assume the responsibilities of the office and perform its duties to the fullest extent of my ability. If I should have the honor to reach this high, noble and responsible position, may I not hope by the aid of the people and the bar to hold the scales of justice in equal poise, not to deviate from "the law and facts" for a friend or against a foe, but administer justice tempered by mercy without fear, partially, favor or affection, alike to the high and the low, the rich and the poor, friend and foe?

In conclusion permit me to say that if I should be elected Judge I will perform my duty faithfully and honestly. Again thanking you for your kind expressions of confidence, I have the honor to be your friend and fellow-citizen.

JOHN L. THOMAS.

This section of the State booms for Grant. Col. Lindsay went over into Reynolds week before last and carried that county for him; five men met at Greenville last Saturday week—three Grant and two anti-Grant—and Wayne pronounced for a third term; and last Saturday Iron county, by an enthusiastic vote of six to two, put herself on record as being an admirer of "the man on horseback."

Although Kearneyism has been crushed out as a result of the recent election, the San Francisco Committee of Two Hundred is not yet satisfied with its work. It proposes to keep up its organization and to bring to punishment all the leaders of the disturbing element in the city. Steps have already been taken to bring Mayor Kalloch before the bar of justice to answer for misuse of his authority and incoherent language. The German Socialist Steinman and the woman Smith, both prominent in the recent disturbances, are kept under close surveillance, and are to be turned over to the mercies of the law as soon as Kalloch's case is disposed of. The plan seems to be to give the agitators a lesson that they will not soon forget. Already the best results have followed the conviction of Kearney and the elections, and business, which for some months had been paralyzed, is rapidly improving.
Confidence has been restored with the restoration of law and order, and in a short time it is expected that the city will recover its lost prosperity.
